

PAGOSA PADDLE!

<https://www.facebook.com/racingsoco/>

What? The first ever head to head whitewater race through downtown Pagosa Springs Colorado!

When? Saturday May 18th 2019.

Where? FUN RUNS and surfing will be filmed at the wave by the gazebo at Yamaguchi Park 11am-1pm! You can take laps through some fun wave features or get your surf on. Teams and individuals....we will video tape the excitement and show it later at Riff Raff on the Rio after the downriver race! Awards for best carnage and surf are being considered 😊

RACE Registration

Downriver Race Registration is at 2:30pm at Riff Raff on the Rio. 356 E Pagosa St, Pagosa Springs, CO 81147 $15 a person. Includes shuttle, insurance, shwag, and a soaking pass for the Springs Resort and Spa ($28 value)!

Downriver mass start race begins at 4pm sharp in front of Riff Raff on the Rio and ends at Yamaguchi Park! ALL crafts and classes (see below).

Why? To bring the excitement of whitewater racing to Pagosa Springs on a section of river all can enjoy by spectating and even racing!

- At this time we have support from Riff Raff on the Rio, KEEN, Sawyer Paddles and Oars, Pagosa Mountain Sports, and Pagosa Outside, the Springs Resort and Spa, and Hotel SOCO.

11am-1pm morning FUN classes include:

- Any craft that can safely and successfully navigate Class III-IV whitewater.

Races begin at 4pm sharp at Riff Raff on the Rio and go to Yamaguchi Park.

- Hard shell kayak, any length.
- Inflatable kayak, any length.
- Fun raft, any length, 2-7 paddlers.
- Pro raft, not to exceed 14 feet, 4 paddlers. Pro teams register for free!
- “Pro” = your team has trained to race in the past, you may have race type gear such as boats and paddles, your team races together more than once a year, you may now or have been sponsored in the past, etc.
- Oar boats, cats and/or rafts (single oarsman no paddle assist).
